STANDING RULES FOR ACHIEVEMENT DAY

Revised July 2014

> The purpose of Achievement Day is to recognize achievement in music study and to encourage individual talents and interests. This event is sponsored by CSMTA and FMTA.

Members who participate in any FMTA event must have renewed their membership to FMTA, CSMTA, and MTNA by July 1. Late-renewing members (joining after July 1) must pay a late entry fee of $20 by the registration deadline. New members must have joined and paid membership dues thirty days prior to the entry deadline.

1. The student requirements are found on the CSMTA website. This information will help teachers decide in which levels the students should be entered. Please click on the following links to view the guidelines.

2. All members are asked to support this FMTA program by assisting on Achievement Day. Teachers entering students will be scheduled to work the following hours. A teacher who cannot work must secure an FMTA/CSMTA active member replacement to work the hours assigned.

1 - 4 students............................	work 3 hours
5 - 10 students..........................	work 6 hours
11+..................	work all day

3. Hand-in projects include option numbers 17,18, 19, and 20. Only Hand-in Project #17 (Original composition) will be evaluated on AD.

4. The non-refundable entry fee is listed in the FMTA Yearbook (see FMTA website under Yearbook). Members who submit checks which are returned by the bank as having "Non Sufficient Funds (NSF)" shall pay all bank charges involved.

5. Registration Forms may be found online at http://www.fmtamusic.org/achievement-day/

6. Completed Registration Forms and Tally Sheets are due one month before the event (see deadline on forms).

7. Students participating in this event will receive an acknowledgment, as well as written comments from a listener and a ribbon for each option they choose.

8. In addition to members of FMTA and other CSMTA local associations, student members of CSMTA may enter students in this event and will be asked to assist at the event.
