

Foothills Music Teachers Association
General Minutes
October 16, 2013

President Kathy Hammer called the meeting to order at 9:30.

Kathy Hammer reported on the September 18th CSMTA Board Meeting as follows:
The Federal Trade Commission has pointed out that the MTNA Code of Ethics that recommended that teachers do not recruit students from other teachers' studios stifled Competition in the profession, and was therefore illegal.

Achievement Day practice tests are available online at the CSMTA website.

Our guest, Phyllis Pfeiffer, Charter President of FMTA was introduced by Kathy.

There are still open time slots for Barnes and Noble Holiday Music. Music selected for this event should be holiday music. Shop online on December 6, 7, and 8th and FMTA will receive a percentage of all purchases.

VP/Programs Laura Rogers announced that our program that day was "Honing Listening Skills and Musical Intuition" presented by Hsing-ay Hsu.

VP/Membership Elaine Van Dellen welcomed back Dana Tracy to our group.

VP/Publicity Becky Fitzmaurice asked members to be sure to "like" our Facebook Page: foothillsfmta. Photos from the Fall Festival will be needed.

Treasurer Gary Bishop reported as follows: Income: $1,136.00/Expenses: $376.92, Savings: $5,814.48
Scholarship $1,466.38.

Achievement Day Chair Carrie Christensen will host a day for Achievement day info/assistance on December 11th at her home. Her new address as of December 1st is 2195 Zang Street, Golden, CO 80401.

Sonatina Festival Linda Pott/Teresa Hegyi announced that the festival and recitals will be all on one day.
